Whitehall, September 5.

THe following Addreſſes having been preſented to His Majeſty, His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Surrey, with the Freeholders of the ſame. The High Sheriff, with the Grand Jury, at the laſt Aſſizes holden for the ſaid County, joyning therein.

Dread Soveraign,

THE moſt Treacherous Conſpiracies of divers ill affected and deſperate Perſons againſt your Majeſties Royal Perſon, and of Your Dearelt Brother, James Duke of York, Obliges us Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, again to preſent our ſelves before your Royal Feet, declaring our utmoſt deteſtation of all their Impious Practices whatſoever, and beſeeching Your Majeſty to receive this great Truth from us, that nothing in this World can be more acceptable to us than to be effectually Serviceable to your Majeſty in the total Extirpation both of the Perſons and Principles of theſe moſt deſperate Traitors, who under the ſpecious pretence of Religion and Liberty, uſe their utmoſt endeavours to execute moſt deſperate Treaſons, and abominable Treacheries.

And alſo declaring unto your Royal Majeſty, that it is the faithful Reſolution of every particular Perſon hereunto Subſcribed, to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Your Majeſties immediate Service, and for the Preſervation of Your Majeſties Royal Perſon, and the Perſon of Your Deareſt Brother, James Duke of York.

And in order thereunto, we are reſolved from time to time, whenſoever we ſhall be by your Majeſty thereunto called, to Elect and Appoint ſuch Perſons in Places of Truſt, as are very well known for their true Loyalty to Yon their moſt Gracious Prince, and their Faith and Obedience to the Church and State, as it is now Eſtabliſhed by Law.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and others the Gentlemen of the County of Suſſex, at the Aſſizes held at Eastgrinſted in the aforeſaid County, on Monday the Three and twentieth Day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majeſties Reign.

WE do moſt Joyfully acknowledge the Providence and Goodneſs of God in preſerving your Majeſties Perſon, and your Royal Brother, from the moſt wicked Deſigns of thoſe, who under pretences of Conſcience and Publick Good, have Barbarouſly attempted the Life of your Majeſty, and the Subverſion of the Government.

And we do here make our Solemn Proteſtations to ſtand by and Defend your Sacred Majeſty and Lawful Succeſſors, againſt all Plots, Aſſociations, and Rebellious Conſpiracies whatſoever; and whenever your Majeſty ſhall in Your Wiſdom think fit to call a Parliament, we ſhall hold our ſelves oblig'd in Duty to make choice of Perſons of ſuch approved Loyalty, as will faithfully ſerve and obey your Majeſty, and not deſign the enſlaving of their Fellow-Subjects.

We ſhall make it our hearty Prayer to God, to Preſerve your Majeſty from the Fanatical and Impious Conſpiracies of all Perſons Diſſenting and Diſaffected to the Eſtabliſhed Government, and that the Crown may remain in Your Royal Family in a due Succeſſion for ever.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſties Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Colonels, and other Officers of the Militia for the Weſt-Riding of the County of York, Being extremely Alarm'd at the late Horrid and Execrable Deſign againſt Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon and Government, and His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, Do moſt humbly beg that your Majeſty will have ſo great a confidence in us Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Faithful Subjects, as to be aſſured, that to the utmoſt of our powers we ſhall upon all occaſions, and at all times, be ready, not only to uſe all endeavours poſſible towards the diſcovery of any Treaſonable Deſign againſt your Majeſty, but ſhall be ready with all chearfulneſs and duty, to Sacrifice both our Lives and Fortunes to defend Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, your Heirs and Lawful Succeſſors, and the Government both in Church and State, as now Eſtabliſhed, againſt all Evil and Traiterous Conſpiracies, from what Party ſoever, any thing of ſo Black and ſo Horrid a nature ſhall proceed. All theſe our Reſolutions are accompanied with our daily Prayers, that Your Majeſty may always prevent and overcome all your Enemies, and that to the joy and ſatisfaction of Your Loyal and Faithful Subjects, your Majeſty may long and happily Reign over us.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayors, Bayliffs, Jurats, and Commons of the Cinque-Ports, two Antient Towns, and their Members, Aſſembled at a Brotherhood and Gueſtling holden at New Romency in the County of Kent, the Four and twentieth Day of July, 1683.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the ſaid Mayors, Bayliffs, Jurats, and Commons of the Cinque-Ports, two Antient Towns, and their Members, By Your Majeſties Grace and Favour enjoying the Priviledges of Aſſembling together this day at a Brotherhood and Gueſtling, being an Authority which Your Majeſty and Royal Progenitors have confirmed to us according to our Antient Uſage and Cuſtom, and not having had the opportunity of Aſſembling together for many Years laſt paſt, think it our bounden Duty to offer to Your Majeſty our Loyal and Thankful Obedience, and moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept of this our ſincere Duty and Obedience, wherein we offer unto Your Majeſty, as the firſt Fruits of this our Aſſembly, the deep Senſe we have of the many Deliverances, Your Majeſty (through the wonderful Providence of Almighty God) hath received from many Damnable Plots and Deviliſh Conſpiracies, which by wicked and malicious Men have been moſt Barbarouſly Contrived and carried on.

And particularly, the Deliverance Your Majeſty and Royal Brother, James Duke of York, lately received from ſuch, who through pretence of Religion, have endeavoured by the worſt of Jeſuitical, Fanatical, and Atheiſtical Methods, to engage Men in the moſt Bloody Deſigns, and greateſt Outrages, againſt their King and the Government, and His moſt Loyal Subjects, contrary to all Law, their duty to God, the Articles of the Church, the natural Duty of Subjects, and their

their Oaths of Allegiance, to the great Scandal of Religion and Reformation.

And to assure your Majesty of our but just and true Affection, and our hearty Satisfaction in Your Majesties Person and Government in Church and State, we do declare, That we do utterly detest all kind of Separation from the Church as now established by Law, all Unlawful Assemblies and Conventicles whatsoever; and do look upon Contempt of the Law, as a sin against God; all Suspicion of your Royal Designs, or Misrepresentations of your Proceedings, as a Reproach to our Maker and His Providence.

We do, as in Duty bound, most humbly beg Your Majesty to be assured, That we are fully resolved to lay down our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesties Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and your Government as it is Established in Church and State; And do and shall pray for your Majesties long Life and Prosperous Reign, and that all your Enemies may fall before You; which is the hearty desire of

Your Majesties most Loyal and most Obedient Subjects.

To Your most Sacred Majesty,

The Address of Your Majesties Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Commission Officers in the Militia of Your County of Warwick,

Humbly Sheweth,

THat as it is our duty to offer our Lives and Fortunes to Your Majesties Service in the defence of Your Royal Person and Government, We hold our selves at this time more particularly obliged publickly to declare the same, with our Detestation of the late Hellish Conspiracy, carried on by Factious Persons and Dissenting Conventiclers, against Your Sacred Life and Hereditary Monarchy. We therefore humbly beg leave to assure Your Majesty, and to tell the World, that with the most fervent Joy we daily bless God, who hath so miraculously preserved You and Your Dearest Brother from such a Generation of Monsters; resolving in our several Stations to pursue and diligently endeavour the Suppression of all dangerous and ill-affected Persons, that our Actions may demonstrate the Loyalty of our Wishes, that all Your Enemies may fall before You, that You may be glorious both at home and abroad, and that the Imperial Diadem of these Realms may long flourish upon Your Sacred Head, and in Your Royal Line, till time shall be no more.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addr ss of the Mayor, High-Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, and Common Council of His Majesties Borough of Boston in the County of Lincoln.

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, cannot but with the greatest Horror and Amazement reflect on that late Horrid and Hellish Conspiracy made by Persons of Fanatical and Republican Principles, being known Dissenters from the Religion Established within Your Majesties Kingdoms, and not less Enemies to Monarchy it self, who did Traiterously and Villainously design the Death and Destruction of Your Majesty, and not contented with the Blood-sucking of a Monarch so matchless Merciful, did also contrive the Murther and Destruction of Your Dearest Brother James Duke of York. But Divine Providence having interposed in their Damnable Design, and prevented their Bloody Enterprize by a happy and timely Discovery of it. We do therefore with all Humility and Thankfulness bless the Almighty God for his Preservation of Your Royal Person and Dearest Brother, from the Desperate Attempts of Your Conspiring Enemies, who would so audaciously presume and venture on the most Execrable Murther of the most Merciful Prince the World could ever boast of. And we do humbly and heartily assure Your Majesty, that we shall, to the utmost, hazard our Lives and Fortunes, which are Your Majesties by Right and by Duty, to stand by and defend Your Sacred Person, and Your Lawful Heirs and Successors, against this and all other Conspiracies and Associations whatsoever. Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the said Borough, the nineteenth day of July, in the five and thirtieth year of Your Majesties Reign, over England, &c. Anno Dom' 1683.

We the rest of the Inhabitants of the said Borough, do unanimously consent and assent to the above Address made to His Sacred Majesty.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Loyal Inhabitants of Your Majesties Town and Borough of Cirencester in the County of Gloucester.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do find by Your Royal Proclamation, that there is a Discovery of divers Horrid Wicked and Trayterous Persons, who, together with their most Damnable Associates, have contrived and designed to murder and destroy Your most Sacred Person, together with that most Excellent Prince, Your Majesties Royal Brother James Duke of York. And being deeply sensible of those unspeakable Mischiefs which the event thereof would have brought upon these Your Kingdoms. We do unanimously resolve, (giving Almighty God most hearty thanks for the miraculous Discovery of so Damnable a Design) not only to use our utmost endeavours to apprehend those mentioned, but all other Persons that we shall at any time have the least suspition to be concerned.

And we most humbly beseech Your most gracious Majesty to accept these our most hearty and firm Resolutions. That we will with our Lives and Fortunes endeavour to bring all such Damnable Traitors to condign Punishment. And defend Your Majesty and Your Royal Successors in the Government of these Your Kingdoms, to the last drop of our Blood.

And ever pray that God would grant Your Majesty Long Life, and a Happy Raign over us.

Amen, Amen, Amen.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Abingdon in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Soveraign,

WE Your Majesties Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs and Burgesses of Your Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks, do most humbly admire and adore the Divine Goodness towards this Kingdom, in protecting Your Sacred Person from so many eminent Dangers wherewith you have from time to time been threatned by Traiterous and Bloody-minded men, who if they were not desperately wicked, by such a Series of Providences, might be most evidently convinced, that in attempting Your Majesty, they fight against God: But being hardened to their own Destruction, have proceeded in a most Horrid and unparallel'd Conspiracy against the Life of Your Majesty, and Your most Dear Brother, the disappointment whereof, we ascribe only to the All-wise Disposer, who ordered those Flames for Your Majesties Preservation, wherewith in consequence he will burn up the Bowels of Your Enemies. We can by no Expressions testifie the heighth of our Joy for this so great Deliverance, but that Your Majesty may be assured of our constant Loyalty, and Your good Subjects know that the defection is not so general, as to give any just Terror to them, and Your Enemies, who by the wickedness of their Designs, will not be disswaded by the weakness and folly thereof, may for ever hereafter be discouraged, we do take this opportunity publickly to declare, that we will unfeignedly, to the utmost hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, assist and defend Your Sacred Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, against all Opposers, of what nature, and under what pretence soever; Beseeching God to continue his Blessings to us, in Your Majesties Long and Happy Reign, and to infatuate the Counsels, and enervate the hands of all Your open and secret Enemies.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address and Petition of Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs and Burgesses of Your Corporation of Northampton.

SHEWETH,

THat betwixt the Horror of the late Impious Conspiracy against your Sacred Majesty, and your Royal Brother and

and the Bleſſing of your wonderful Preſervation: We your dutiful Subjects are in no wiſe able to expreſs either our Deteſtation of the Treaſon, or our thankfulneſs to Almighty God for ſo tranſcendent a Mercy.

We ſhall now preſume to inform your Majeſty, that the next thing in our thoughts, was to inquire into the riſe and occaſion of this accurſed Practiſe and Deſign, and we have found it to ſpring from the Liberty of Seditious Meetings, with the Doctrine of Schilmatical Pulpits, and the Poſitions and Confederacies of Republican Councels and Cabals, during which inſufferable Licenſe, the Faction have likewiſe armed themſelves, and abuſed all your Majeſties Graces and Bounties, in order to the Deſtruction of your Royal Authority and Perſon.

And we are further ſenſible, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, that as Corporations, in general, have been the Nurſeries of Sedition and Schiſm, and this in particular (for which we moſt humbly beg your Majeſties Pardon) ſo for want of neceſſary inſpection from above, they have degenerated by degrees from their Allegiance to an Imperial Prince, into the Corruptions of a Common-wealth.

In the due ſenſe of theſe Inconveniencies, and the Faith we owe your Sacred Majeſty, we have laid our Charter at your Royal Feet, in hope your Princely Goodneſs will vouchſafe to beſtow upon us ſuch Liberties and Priviledges in lieu of what we formerly enjoyed, as may enable us to live comfortably as a Community, and likewiſe keep us within the bounds of Loyalty and Obedience, to the eſtabliſhed order both of Church and State.

We do humbly beſeech Almighty God to protect and deliver your Majeſty in and from all Dangers, and to defeat the Deſigns of all Conventiclers, Covenanters, Aſſociators, and all other Traytors whatſoever, and finally to accept of our Lives and Eſtates in the juſt Vindication and defence of your Majeſties Perſon and Dignity, the eſtabliſhed Church, and lineal Deſcent of the Crown.

To the King's Moſt Sacred Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Militia-Officers in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

THere is a time to keep ſilence, and a time to ſpeak, there never was a time which ſo much overcharged our hearts with Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence, our hearts are full and muſt ſpeak or break.

We want not the Trembling Integrity of thoſe Eleven, who asked, Maſter is it I, nor can we ſtay till your Majeſty ask the Zealous Jehu's queſtion, who is on our ſide.

We come, having firſt been at Heaven with thankſgiving, moſt humbly and moſt ſincerely to Congratulate your gracious Majeſties and Deareſt Brothers Safeties and Deliverances from the Violence and Cruelty of Fanatick Traiterous Conſpirators, and we profeſs in the Preſence of God, we will always come with our Swords, with our Lives in our hands, to interpoſe to our power betwixt your Majeſty and all Dangers, upon this Horrid Conſpiracy, upon any, yea upon every occaſion to preſerve your Majeſties Royal Perſon, your Government as now eſtabliſhed, your Heirs and lawful Succeſſors, and we truſt we ſhall ſo Principle our Poſterity to be of that Faith which can never be falſe to the Crown.

The Deliverances of David were ſcarce ſo many and ſo ſignal as your Majeſties, may the ſame God here and hereafter make you happy, give you a Long and Proſperous Reign, and ever continue the Succeſſion of the Crown of your Kingdoms in your Royal Line, as a Bleſſing to Poſterity and us,

Your Majeſties moſt Loyal, and moſt Faithful Obedient Subjects

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humbly Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Stafford, agreed upon at the Guild-hall there, the 17th Day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, Annoq; Dom. 1683.

SHEWETH,

THat we your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, Having heard of the diſcovery of a moſt Traiterous, Horrid and bloody Conſpiracy of ſeveral Perſons of damnable wicked and Fanatical Principles, to compaſs the Death and Deſtruction of your moſt Sacred and Royal Perſon, and your Deareſt Brother, James Duke of York, and to Subvert the Eſtabliſhed Government in Church and State; Do from the bottom of our Souls deteſt and abhor all ſuch Traiterous Deſigns, and praiſe Almighty God for his repeated miraculous Preſervation of your Sacred Majeſty, and Royal Brother, from the Malice and Deviliſh Deſigns of that Ungrateful Antimonarchical Party; And we do aſſure your moſt Sacred Majeſty, that we will readily Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the defence and Preſervation of your Majeſties Perſon, your Heirs and Lawful Succeſſors, and the Government in Church and State as now Eſtabliſhed, againſt this and all other Traiterous Conſpiracies and Aſſociations: In Teſtimony of the ſincerity of theſe our Profeſſions of Duty and Loyalty, we have Unanimouſly in the place of our late High Steward, (Accuſed of this Horrid Conſpiracy) choſe the Right Honourable Robert, Lord Ferrers of Chartly, a Perſon of unqueſtioned and approved Loyalty; And becauſe one of our late Repreſentatives in Parliament, is alſo engaged in this Unparalelled Plot, and is ſince fled from Juſtice, we ſhall for the future take care to ſend no Members to Parliament, but ſuch Perſons as are and have always been truly Loyal and of known Affections to your Majeſty, the Royal Family, and Eſtabliſhed Government; And in all other things, to the utmoſt of our poor power, ſhall be Obedient to your Majeſties Laws, and ſhall humbly proſtrate our ſelves, with our Charter, at your Majeſties Feet, if You pleaſe to Command the ſame: To which we humbly add the Subſcriptions of our Names, and the Seal of our ſaid Borough.

Lintz, Auguſt 30. Their Imperial Majeſties arrived here the 25th. The Empreſs will lie in here; and the Emperor will part from hence for Krembs, to meet the King of Poland at his arrival there, who, as our Advices tell us, was to be this day, with the main of his Army at St Niclaesburg, and will joyn the Duke of Lorrain about the 4th or 5th of the next Month. The News of the defeat of 15000 Turks and Tartars, is confirmed in the ſame manner we related in our laſt, as is likewiſe that of Major General Dunewaldt's having poſſeſſed himſelf of a very advantageous Poſt in the Foreſt of Vienna; but we hear nothing farther of what was reported of the Turks having given an aſſault to Vienna the 21. Inſtant, and their having loſt 20000 men, and the Beſieged 5000. We have no freſher account of what has paſſed at Vienna, than that of the 19th. when things were in as good a condition there as could be expected.

Cologne, September 7. The Advices we receive from Lintz and other places, confirm the account we had of the defeat of the 15000 Turks by the Duke of Lorrain, and of Major General Dunewaldt's having ſecured a very important Poſt in the Foreſt of Vienna. But as for the aſſault it was ſaid the Turks gave to Vienna the 21. paſt, ſome Letters ſpeak of it, and ſay the Turks loſt 6000 men, but without any certainty.

Hague, September 11. The 5th inſtant the Prince of Orange returned hither from the Veluwe; and on the 8th the States of Holland were compleatly aſſembled for the firſt time ſince their laſt Recels; His Highneſs being preſent. It's ſaid His Highneſs has given out orders for ſeveral Troops to march towards Brabant, and that they are to encamp in the Neighborhood of Bolduc. The Men of War appointed for the reinforcement of our Fleet now at Sea, will be ready to ſail in few days.

Paris, September 11. The 9th inſtant the Earl of Dumbarton and Colonel Nichols, being ſent by His Majeſty of Great Britain, and His Royal Highneſs, to make their Complements of Condolance at this Court upon the Death of the Queen, had their Audience of the King, the Dauphin, &c. The
